Code of Ethics

We have adopted a written code of ethics that applies to our directors, executive officers, and other employees. A copy of our code of ethics is available on our Internet Website: <http://www.vocaltec.com> under the "Corporate Governance" tab.

Audit Committee

Under the Companies Law, the board of directors of any publicly traded company must also appoint an audit committee, comprised of at least three directors, including all of the external directors, but excluding: the chairman of the board of directors, any controlling shareholder or a relative of a controlling shareholder (as defined below), any director employed by the company or by its controlling shareholder or by an entity controlled by the controlling shareholder, any director who regularly provides services to the company or to its controlling shareholder or to an entity controlled by the controlling shareholder, and any director who derives most of its income from the controlling shareholder.

Under the Companies Law, a controlling shareholder is someone who has the ability to direct the activities of the company (other than due to a position in the company), including a shareholder who holds 25% or more of the voting rights in a public company if there is no other shareholder holding more than 25% of the voting rights at such time. There is a presumption that a shareholder that holds more than 50% of the voting rights in a public company is deemed to be a controlling shareholder.

The purpose of our Audit Committee is to provide assistance to our Board in fulfilling its legal and fiduciary obligations with respect to matters involving the accounting, auditing, financial reporting and internal control functions of the Company and its subsidiaries as well as complying with the legal requirements under Israeli law and the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. The following are examples of functions within the authority of the Audit Committee:

- To detect irregularities in the management of our business and our internal control procedures through, among other things, consultation with our internal and external auditors and to suggest to the board of directors methods to correct those irregularities;
- To decide whether to approve acts or transactions involving directors, executive officers, controlling shareholders and third parties in which directors, executive officers or controlling shareholders have an interest; and
- To communicate on a regular basis with the Company's outside auditors and review their operation and remuneration.

Our Audit Committee may not approve an action or a transaction with an office holder or a controlling shareholder or an entity in which either of them has a personal interest unless at the time of approval the two external directors are serving as members of the Audit Committee and at least one of the external directors is present at the meeting in which an approval is granted.

As of the date hereof, our Audit Committee was comprised of Yoseph Dauber, Tali Yaron-Eldar and Donald Burns. Our Board has determined that Tali Yaron-Eldar qualifies as an "audit committee financial expert" as defined by Item 407(d) of Regulation S-K.

ITEM 11. EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

Compensation Philosophy and Objectives

The goals of our executive officer compensation program are to attract, retain, and reward executive officers who contribute to our success, to align executive officer compensation with our performance, and to motivate executive officers to achieve our business objectives. We compensate our senior management through a mix of base salary, bonus, and equity compensation designed to align management's incentives with the long-term interests of our stockholders. In addition, we provide our named executive officers with benefits that are generally available to all employees of the Company. Compensation paid to our executive officers is made on a discretionary basis by our Board following approval by the Compensation Committee. In addition, shareholders must approve certain executive compensation, as described in more detail below.

Our Named Executive Officers in 2012 were Daniel Borislow, Chief Executive Officer and Director; Peter Russo, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer; Andrew MacInnes, President; and Dr. Yuen Wah Sing, President of Tiger Jet Network, Inc., a subsidiary of the Company, and Director.

As of January 1, 2012, we ceased to be a foreign private issuer, and we are no longer permitted to follow home country corporate governance practices in lieu of those followed by U.S. companies under the listing standards of NASDAQ. In connection with this transition to domestic issuer status, we have appointed a Compensation Committee consisting of independent members to recommend executive compensation to our Board. For more information regarding the composition of the Compensation Committee, refer to Item 13, "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions, and Director Independence."

Setting Executive Compensation

Our compensation setting process consists of establishing targeted overall compensation for each executive officer and then allocating that compensation among base salary, bonus, and equity compensation. The compensation package of each executive is designed to attract or retain those executives, and to reward company-wide performance through tying compensation decisions to general operational and financial performance. Executive management consisting of the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer evaluates both company and individual performance and makes periodic compensation recommendations to the Compensation Committee and Board. The Compensation Committee may from time to time utilize various analyses, such as the comparison of stockholder returns graph, to determine appropriate executive compensation.

Executive management conducts periodic assessments of individual performance as measured by financial and operational metrics of the Company appropriate to each individual executive, such as revenues and other operational/administrative measurements. Simultaneously, executive management conducts an assessment of the Company's overall performance, which includes the achievement of operating results and other performance criteria. The combination of these two factors determines what will be the overall compensation recommendation from executive management to the Board. Based on this recommendation and its own analysis, our Board in consultation with the Compensation Committee uses its discretion to determine both the overall compensation level for each executive and specific allocation to each element of compensation.

Executive management and our Board in consultation with the Compensation Committee periodically review base salary levels for executive officers of our Company, and determinations regarding bonuses are generally made at the end of a fiscal year. The responsibilities of our Board in consultation with the Compensation Committee include discharging other responsibilities relating to compensation programs of our Company.

A recent amendment to the Companies Law requires that by September 12, 2013 the Company adopt a compensation policy applicable to Company officers and directors which must take into account, among other things, advancement of the company's goals, providing proper incentives to directors and officers, the risk management of the company, and the officer's contribution to achieving corporate objectives and increasing profits. The compensation policy must be approved by the Board after considering the recommendations of the Compensation Committee. In addition, the compensation policy requires the approval of the general meeting of the shareholders, including one of the following: (i) the majority of shareholder votes counted at general meeting including the majority of all of the votes of those shareholders who are non controlling shareholders and do not have a personal interest in the approval of the compensation policy, who participate at the meeting (excluding abstentions) or (ii) the total number of votes against the proposal among the shareholders mentioned in paragraph (i) does exceed two percent (2%) of the voting rights in the company (a "Special Majority"). Under special circumstances, the Board may approve the compensation policy despite the objection of the shareholders on the condition that the Compensation Committee and then the Board decide, on the basis of detailed reasons and after discussing again the compensation policy, that approval of the compensation policy, despite the objection of the shareholders, is for the benefit of the Company. As of the date of this Form 10-K/A, we have not yet adopted a compensation policy.

An engagement with an officer who is not a director or the chief executive officer regarding his or her service and terms of employment must be approved by the Compensation Committee and the Board, provided that the compensation is approved in accordance with the Company's compensation policy to be adopted under the Companies Law. Other approval requirements apply if the engagement is not in accordance with the Company's compensation policy. An engagement with the Chief Executive Officer regarding his or her service and terms of employment must be approved by our Compensation Committee, our Board of Directors, and by a Special Majority. In special cases, the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer may be approved without shareholder approval. Arrangements between the Company and a director as to the terms of his office or regarding compensation for non-directorial duties requires the approval of the Compensation Committee, Board and shareholders. For more information, see "Item 13. Certain Relationships and Related Transactions, and Director Independence" below.

Compensation Program

The primary components of the executive compensation program of our Company consist of base salary, discretionary bonuses, grants of ordinary shares, and health benefits.

Base Salary

We provide executive officers with a level of base salary that recognizes appropriately each individual officer's scope of responsibility, role in the organization, experience, and contributions to the success of our Company. Increases to base salary are proposed when justified by individual performance. Mr. Borislow's base salary in 2012 for his service as a member of the Board or any committee thereof, and for serving as Chief Executive Officer of the Company, was a fixed annual payment (paid quarterly) of $200,000. Dr. Sing received a base salary of $158,124 in 2012 for his service as President of TigerJet Network, Inc. Mr. MacInnes's base salary for 2012 for his service as President of the Company was $200,000, and he received payment of $179,615 in 2012, which represents the pro rata portion of base salary for his services beginning February 22, 2012. In February 2012, Mr. Russo's base salary increased to $200,000 for his service as Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer. The Chief Executive Officer recommended and the Board approved the increase in Mr. Russo's base salary based on his increased responsibilities within the Company after it became a U.S. domestic filer.

Management Bonus

Periodic bonuses are intended to provide additional compensation to key officers and employees who contribute substantially to the success of our Company. The granting of such awards is based upon the level of our Company's general performance but is not tied to individual performance objectives. On December 27, 2012, Mr. Russo was awarded a cash bonus of $175,006. This bonus was not paid out until January 2013. The Chief Executive Officer recommended and the Board approved this bonus based on Mr. Russo's increased responsibilities within the Company after it became a U.S. domestic filer.

Grants of Ordinary Shares

Equity compensation consists of periodic grants of ordinary shares to certain of our executives to provide additional incentive to work to maximize long-term total return to stockholders. Award levels are determined based on market data and may vary among participants based on their positions within the Company, assessment of job performance, and other factors. Under our 2003 Amended Master Stock Option Plan, or 2003 Plan, a committee appointed by the Board is specified to act as the plan administrator. If, in the opinion of the committee based on recommendation from management and/or our Board of Directors, the outstanding service of an existing employee merits an increase in the number of options and awards held, the committee may elect to issue additional ordinary shares to that employee. In 2012, our Board of Directors administered the plan directly and not through a committee. On February 1, 2012, Mr. MacInnes received 10,000 ordinary shares as a sign-on bonus for accepting his position as President of the Company.

On July 30, 2012, Mr. Russo was awarded 12,346 ordinary shares and Mr. MacInnes was awarded 4,939 ordinary shares to reflect their significant contributions to the administration and financial management of the Company. Mr. Russo surrendered 3,265 of these shares to pay taxes. Additionally, on December 27, 2013, the Board awarded Mr. Russo 10,749 ordinary shares. The Chief Executive Officer recommended and the Board approved this grant based on Mr. Russo's increased responsibilities within the Company after it became a U.S. domestic filer.

Benefits

We provide various employee benefit programs to our executive officers, including: (i) medical and dental insurance benefits for our U.S. based employees (excluding the Company's CEO, Daniel Borislow, who does not receive medical and dental insurance benefits from the Company), and (ii) a defined contribution retirement plan for our Israeli employees. These benefits are generally available to all full-time employees of our Company based on their location.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Our Compensation Committee has reviewed and discussed with management the Compensation Discussion and Analysis included in this Form 10-K/A and, based on such review and discussions, the Compensation Committee recommended to our Board that the Compensation Discussion and Analysis be included in this Form 10-K/A.

Respectfully submitted, The Compensation Committee

Tal Yaron-Eldar
Yoseph Dauber
Richard Harris

During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2012, the Company had no employment agreements with its named executives, except for an offer letter with Mr. MacInnes, dated February 1, 2012. According to the terms of the offer letter, Mr. MacInnes was entitled to an annual base salary of $200,000, a discretionary bonus (as recommended by the Chief Executive Officer), based on the achievement of Company and personal goals, and certain other benefits, including the right to participate in all group benefits. In addition, Mr. MacInnes received a sign-on bonus of 10,000 ordinary shares and a restricted stock award of 10,000 ordinary shares that would have vested on the second anniversary of the date of the award (had he remained continuously employed by the Company through the vesting date). Upon a "Change in Control," Mr. MacInnes would have been entitled to a bonus based on the net equity proceeds received by the Company. Subject to certain conditions, if Mr. MacInnes was terminated other than for cause, he would have received a lump sum equal to his annual base salary. In accordance with the terms of the offer letter, Mr. MacInnes received a lump sum payment of $200,000 in 2013. The restricted stock award of 10,000 shares was forfeited.

Except as described above, during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2012, none of our named executives had any contract, agreement, plan, or arrangement that provides payments as a result of termination of employment, change in responsibilities of such executive, or change of control of the Company.

ITEM 13. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS, AND DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCE

Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

On January 2, 2013, a subsidiary of the Company entered into a Lease Agreement with Fast Transport, LLC, a limited liability company owned by Daniel Borislow, the Company's former Chief Executive Officer. During the original lease term, which ends on December 31, 2014, rent of $8,000 per month is payable. There is also an option to renew for one year, at rent of $8,800 per month.

Other than as described above, in our last fiscal year, there has not been, nor is there currently proposed, any transaction or series of similar transactions to which we were or are to be a party in which the amount involved exceeds $120,000 and in which any of our directors, executive officers, holders of more than 5% of our ordinary shares or any members of the immediate family of any of the foregoing persons, had or will have a direct or indirect material interest.

Family Relationships

There are no family relationships among any of our directors or executive officers.

Independent Directors

During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2012, independent members of our Board consisted of Yoseph Dauber, Tal Yaron-Eldar, Gerald Vento, Ilan Rosen and Donald A. Burns, and non-independent members of our Board consisted of Daniel Borislow and Dr. Yuen Wah Sing. Mr. Borislow and Mr. Rosen resigned during 2012. Effective January 1, 2013, Mr. Vento was appointed as President and Chief Executive Officer and is no longer considered independent. Effective March 26, 2013, Richard Harris was appointed to our Board and Compensation Committee as an independent director. Our Compensation Committee, Nominating Committee and Audit Committee are each comprised of independent directors.

Approval of Related Party Transactions Under Israeli Law

Under the Companies Law, an engagement by the Company with an officer who is not a director or the chief executive officer regarding his or her service and terms of employment, including an undertaking to indemnify, exculpate or insure such officer, must be approved by the Compensation Committee and the Board, provided that the compensation is approved in accordance with the Company's compensation policy to be adopted under the Companies Law. If the engagement is not in accordance with the Company's compensation policy, approval of the engagement is required by a Special Majority as well. In special cases, the compensation committee and the Board may decide to adopt the terms of such an engagement despite the objection of the shareholders, so long as such decision is based on detailed reasons and after discussing again such engagement and reexamining it in light of the shareholder objection.

An engagement with the chief executive officer of the Company regarding his or her service and terms of employment must be approved by our Compensation Committee, our Board of Directors, and by a Special Majority. In special cases, the compensation of the chief executive officer may be approved without shareholder approval if the candidate for chief executive officer is independent and the compensation committee determines, on the basis of detailed reasons, that convening a shareholder meeting to approve the engagement will frustrate the engagement, but only if the engagement complies with the compensation policy to be adopted under the Companies Law

For all other transactions between an officer and the Company, the Companies Law requires audit committee approval followed by board of director approval if the transaction is deemed to be extraordinary, and only board of director approval if the transaction is not deemed to be extraordinary. Under the Companies Law, an “extraordinary transaction” is a transaction:

- other than in the ordinary course of business;
- that is not on market terms; or
- that is likely to have a material impact on a company’s profitability, assets or liabilities.

Under the Companies Law, an engagement by the Company with a director regarding the terms of service as a director and other positions of employment (if employed) requires the approval of the compensation committee, the board of directors and a regular majority of the shareholders, provided that such terms of employment are in accordance with the Company’s compensation policy. Such an engagement that is not in accordance with the Company’s compensation policy must also be approved by a Special Majority

A person who has a personal interest in the approval of a transaction that is submitted to approval of the audit committee or the board of directors generally may not be present during the deliberations and shall not take part in the voting of the audit committee or of the board of directors on such transaction. However, such person may be present at the meeting for the purpose of presenting the transaction if the chairman of the board of directors or the chairman of the audit committee, as the case may be, has determined that the presence of such director is required for presenting the transaction. Notwithstanding the above, a director may be present at a deliberation of the audit committee and the board of directors and may take part in the voting, if the majority of the members of the audit committee or the board of directors, as the case may be, have a personal interest in the approval of the transaction, in which case the transaction shall also require the approval of the shareholders of the company.

In addition, under the Companies Law, extraordinary transactions of a public company with a controlling shareholder or in which a controlling shareholder has a personal interest, and the terms of engagement of the company, directly or indirectly, with a controlling shareholder or his or her relative regarding the receipt by the company of services from the controlling shareholder, require the approval of the audit committee (or the compensation committee, if the engagement is related to the terms of service and employment), the board of directors and a Special Majority, in that order. In addition, any such extraordinary transaction with a term of more than three years requires the abovementioned approval every three years unless, with respect to transactions not involving the receipt of services or compensation, the audit committee determines that a longer term is reasonable under the circumstances.

ITEM 14. PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTANT FEES AND SERVICES

Our Audit Committee is responsible for the oversight of our independent auditors’ work. The Audit Committee’s policy is to pre-approve all audit and non-audit services provided by our auditors. The Audit Committee sets forth the basis for its pre-approval in detail, listing the particular services or categories of services which are pre-approved, and setting forth a specific budget for such services. Additional services may be pre-approved by the Audit Committee on an individual basis. The following table sets forth fees for professional services provided by BDO, the Company’s current independent auditor, for the audit of the Company’s financial statements for fiscal years 2012 and 2011, and fees billed for audit-related and other services (in thousands):
